A David Strauss Memorial Lecture via Audio Conference featuring
Laura Schiebelhut, Public Affairs Manager, BIAA
Wednesday, November 14, 2007

3:00 – 4:00 PM Eastern, 2:00 – 3:00 PM Central, 1:00 – 2:00 PM Mountain, 12:00 – 1:00 PM Pacific

DAVID STRAUSS MEMORIAL LECTURE SERIES

This lecture in the series presents an overview of and update on federal legislation impacting persons with traumatic brain injury, including a summary of BIAA advocacy aimed at improving TBI care for returning service members. The current status of key legislation will be discussed, as will the outlook for efforts to broaden the discussion in Congress to focus on civilian TBI population/issues as we move forward.

NOTE:

Your audio conference dialing instructions, handouts and link to post-conference survey will be e-mailed. Participants are responsible for downloading information for the audio conference prior to the event.

AACBIS Continuing Education Credit is available for Certified Brain Injury Specialists and Trainers. A post-conference survey must be completed to receive credit.

Cancellation Policy: If you are unable to participate in the call, BIAA/AACBIS will transfer your registration to another audio conference within a 12 month period provided we receive notification by Noon ET, November 13, 2007.
